Five Beaverton Women Arrested After Altercation In Public

On September 19, 2012 at approximately 6:15 p.m. Beaverton Police Officers responded to the 3000 block of SW 126th Ave on a fight call involving a weapon. There were several calls made to 911 in regards to this incident.

When officers arrived they saw that approximately 50 people from the neighborhood were actively watching the altercation involving five women. There were children in this group who also were witness to this altercation.

The five involved women were identified as Erin Coulson, 28 of Beaverton, Mary Jordan, 28 of Portland, Sandy Perez, 26 of Beaverton, Monica Filippone, 30 of Portland, and Maria Perez, 22 of Tigard.

Officers determined that the altercation began when Jordan, Perez, Perez, and Filippone confronted Coulson at her apartment, by blocking her driveway with a car. Coulson and Filippone both have a child who share the same father and have had problems with each other in the past. The altercation began when Jordan, Filippone, Perez, and Perez got out of the car and threatened to assault Coulson. Coulson grabbed some empty bottles that were in a recycling bin near her and threw them at the vehicle and then found a hammer and started hitting the vehicle because she was scared. Coulson then left the scene and was located hiding in a nearby back yard.

All five of the women were arrested for disorderly conduct and Coulson was also charged with criminal mischief for the damage she caused to the vehicle. They were all transported to the Washington County Jail and lodged on the above listed charges.
