Other positions still available!

7:35 - 8:10 Discuss Potential NAC Projects and Events

Our NAC has been considering the following ideas to get people actively involved in our neighborhood. If you are interested in any of these ideas please attend and let us know how you can help. City of Beaverton Matching Grants are available to help us fund these ideas. Learn more about these small grants at www.BeavertonOregon.gov/NACGrant.

^ South Beaverton NAC Block Party

● Lack of interest, will take off agenda

^ Neighborhood Cleanup

^ Development of a Reading Program for Children in partnership with an elementary school in our NAC such as Hiteon Elementary.

^ Program could provide new/used books to students to help build their own home libraries, volunteers could read to the students, or bring your own ideas for how such a program could work.

^ Might need to look into how much need or interest there might be at Hiteon Elementary

^ Learn more information from other school organizer at future meeting

8:10 - 8:15 Announcements

^ Maps of walking paths available at meeting

^ Landmark photos of NAC and new NAC logos

8:15 - 8:30 Old/New Business

^ Discuss possible development into public area of vacant lot located between Brockman and Hackamore Court/Morgan Drive.

^ Discuss suggestions for guest speakers for upcoming NAC meetings. If you have ideas for guest speakers please attend and let us know.

^ Would like a speaker about emergency situations, specifically distribution of information
