Man Arrested For Exposing Himself in Public

On May 21, 2013 the Beaverton Police Department took a report of an adult male exposing himself at the Canyon Place Shopping Center located at SW 117th Avenue and SW Canyon Road. The man was described as 5’10”, stocky build, light brown hair and he was wearing a plaid shirt, tan pants and a brown hoodie.

It was reported that this individual would enter a business and ask for a safety pin; because he had a problem with his pants. The man would then let his pants fall to the ground exposing the naked lower half of his body. After he had exposed himself, he would pull his pants back up and leave the area.

The subject was identified as 41 year-old Hillsboro resident, Peter Hart Henderson. The identification was made with the assistance of TriMet and their security camera video systems. Henderson was arrested on June 13, 2013 at 7:11 p.m. by a Beaverton officer who is assigned to TriMet’s Transit Police Division, after he exposed himself to a female passenger on a MAX train. Henderson has been lodged at the Washington County Jail on the charge of felony Public Indecency.

The Beaverton Police Department would like to identify other possible victims of Henderson or witnesses to his actions. Anyone with information is asked to please call the Beaverton Police Department at (503) 629-0111.
