Beaverton Last Tuesday - Tuesday, June 26!

Bring your dancing shoes and a thirst for the arts to the New Seasons' Beaverton Last Tuesday summertime series celebrating music, food and art at The Round Fountain Plaza (12600 SW Crescent Street, adjacent to the Beaverton Central light rail station). Join your neighbors for three free outdoor concerts from 5 to 8 p.m. on the last Tuesday of June, July and August.

Restaurants Mio Sushi and Mingo's will offer indoor and outdoor dining, while artists display their work (available for purchase) throughout the plaza.

Beaverton Last Tuesday is made possible thanks to support from New Seasons, Pepita's Mexican Cuisine, The Round, Artisan Renovations, The Oregonian, Beaverton Arts Foundation, Beaverton Arts Commission and the city of Beaverton.

Tuesday, June 26: Toque Libre

Toque Libre is the brain child of Iranian-born Mehdi Farjami and the Chilean-born brothers Pablo and Ricardo Ojeda. Toque Libre, a Flamenco musical term meaning "free form," combines the melodic pop sensibilities of the Ojeda brother's music-writing style with the driving Flamenco Rumba rhythms of Mehdi Farjami's guitar.
