'Get Schooled' 1860s Style

Re-enacting the pioneer way of life is one of the ways Champoeg DAR Museums (Newell House, Butteville Academy, and Pioneer Mothers Memorial Cabin) teach students about pioneer history.

For Butteville Academy's living history program, Ellen Crauthers, a former homeschool teacher, portrays a pioneer teacher called "Miss Elliott". Students are introduced to the etiquette of the 1863 school day, learn about the history of our flag, and work on arithmetic problems from a text actually used during the 1860's.
