If you are an artist looking for a long-term venue to display your work, please contact Carla Saunders and send her jpeg images of the work that you would like to be considered. Carla can be reached at csaunders@beavertonoregon.gov.

RACC/HACC SPECIAL OFFER - Upcoming Workshop: Attracting Corporate Support for Your Organization!

You only get one chance to make a great impression, particularly with corporations, and time is money! Support from corporations has been shrinking over the last several years and is extremely competitive, whether it comes from their philanthropic or marketing budgets. During this workshop we will arm you to make a difference in your organization's fundraising efforts, particularly in corporate giving. Come prepared to learn about the main avenues for fundraising, fundraising trends and strategies, and the finer details of securing corporate and business sponsorships for your organization.

RACC is offering scholarships for Washington County residents to attend this workshop for free. Please contact Tonisha Toler at ttoler@racc.org to be added to the list. Workshop occurs on Thursday, November 1 from 4-7 pm at the Walters Cultural Arts Center in Hillsboro.

For more information, go to www.hillsboroarts.org.

RACC Artist Opportunity - Installation Space at the Portland Building

RACC is looking for artists interested in submitting proposals for "installation-based" work to be exhibited at the Portland Building. These month long exhibitions don't feature traditional framed paintings or prints, but rather an integrated, 3-D installation that activates the whole space. The opportunity is open to both professional and college-level artists. The honorarium for artists is $1000, for students $500. Deadline to apply is November 1, 2012. You may view the past collection of installations here: <http://racc.org/public-art/installation-space>. Contact Keith Lachowicz at klachowicz@racc.org for more information.

Artisan Renovations Hosts One Woman Art Exhibit

Artisan Renovations is currently hosting an art exhibit at its showroom showcasing the work of local artist, Anne Price Yates. The collection will feature paintings in both watercolors and oil. Most of the pieces will be available for sale. The show will run through December 1st.

When asked about her artistic background, Yates says “My fascination with art began as soon as I could hold a pencil.” Yates has been selected from over 500 artists to be one of the featured artists in Beaverton’s 30th Annual Visual Arts Showcase, opening this November 3rd at the Beaverton Library.

Artisan Renovations has gained recognition over the past few years for providing an innovative and accessible location for exhibiting art, and for lending a unique kind of support to young artists in the community. Owners Howard Radin and Kathryn McDougall Radin were recently honored by the Beaverton Arts Commission with a special award for Art in the Marketplace. The Radins welcome inquiries by area schools and new artists seeking a venue for experience and exposure.

Artisan Renovations showroom is open from 10 – 5 Monday through Friday. The showroom is located at 16205 NW Bethany Ct., #112 Beaverton, OR 97006. Please call 503.614.0101 for more information or visit the showroom to view the collection!
