Dare to be Square at Art On Broadway

Art On Broadway Gallery in Beaverton challenged its award-winning local artists to create works in a 12"x12" format for the first display of the new year. Whether the artist works in glass, fiber, ceramics, jewelry, as a sculptor or painter – the artwork must be square. The exhibit dates are January 5 through February 2, 2013.

Art On Broadway is located at 12570 SW Broadway Street, Beaverton, Oregon, within walking distance of the Max stop at Beaverton Round and just a few doors west of the Beaverton History Center. Open Tuesday through Saturday 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Phone 503-601-3300 for more information or go to <http://artonbroadway.net/>

Village Gallery of Arts - January Happenings

Featured Artist: January 8 - February 2

Don't miss Kat McCullough's fiber art, which will be on display this month. Although her interests run from oils, acrylics, and paper collage, McCullough has been working in fiber the last several years, enjoying its "endless variations of color, shape and line." McCullough cites Paul Klee, Georgia O'Keeffe, Hannah Hoch, Romare Bearden and Wolf Kahn as a few of the many artists she admires.

Classes: Village Gallery is pleased to be offering two new classes in January.

Lydia Cooper will be teaching a one-day Friday workshop using the popular and successful drawing method inspired by Betty Edwards' book, "Drawing on the Right Side of the Brain." This class will be offered on Friday, January 18, 2013 from 9:00 am to 12:00 pm at the gallery and is open to ages 16 to adult. Cost: $30

Chris Keylock Williams will be teaching “Hearing Your Painting,” a five-week painting course offered at the gallery on Tuesdays. Morning and afternoon sessions are available. All levels welcome.

Danny Rodriguez will be returning to the gallery in January to teach Turkish Marbling on Paper. This is a great opportunity to learn the techniques of this ancient art form. All levels, ages 16 to adult. Saturday, January 19, 10:00 am to 2:00 pm. Cost: $60

Other Classes:

Children’s Art Classes by Kristi Roberts, ages 7 - 12 years

Traditional Watercolor Class by Emma Achleithner

Acrylics for Brilliant Transparent Paintings by Linda Rothchild Ollis

The Beaverton Historical Society presents “An Evening with Abraham Lincoln”

Tuesday, January 8, 2013, 7:00 PM

Beaverton History Center

12412 SW Broadway St.

Beaverton, OR

What American wouldn’t love to have a conversation with Abraham Lincoln? Praised as “the best Lincoln in America” portrayer Steve Holgate brings Lincoln alive. Steve has been portraying Abraham Lincoln onstage, in classroom and in other public venues for 13 years. He has performed before audiences on the West Coast as well as in Mexico, Bahrain and Sri Lanka.

Register for Winter Term at Ano’s Art Academy

Inviting, fun, full of purpose...The way in which a classroom is designed offers students a way of perceiving the world. Ano’s new school, located in the Cedar Hills Shopping Center, is a haven filled with all the materials students need to explore their dreams – in an atmosphere of trust and support in every art class. And they'll find all the tools and materials used by serious artists – no compromises. New student applications are being accepted now for winter session. Visit the Ano's Art website for more information and to fill out an application! www.anosart.org.

Start 2013 By Immersing Yourself In The Hawaiian Culture

Hula Hālau 'Ohana Holo'oko'a (School Of Hula Where Everyone Is Family) welcomes students from 3 years old through 97 years old for their Winter Classes that start the beginning of January. They currently offer 3 hula classes for children 3 to 17 years old and 4 hula classes for all levels of adults including a day time class for adults 55 years and older. Their Tahitian class has all skill levels and is open to both children and adults. Classes have easy freeway access right off of Highway 217. You can find more information on their website - www.hulaaloha.org or you can call (971) 227-8354.

Painted Violin Project - Seeking Display Opportunities

The Portland Youth Philharmonic is participating in a Painted Violin Project this spring. They are looking for venues in Beaverton to display these beautiful works of art before they are auctioned off at their annual fundraiser in April. Google search Painted Violin Project for examples of these artful masterpieces. The dates for display in Beaverton are March 11-25. Approximately five violins will be in search of a temporary home during this time. If you are a business, art gallery, or just have a secure space that could use some beautiful temporary art, please contact Rick at 503.638.0109 or parfrey@msn.com for more details.

Beaverton Chamber Symphony Winter Concert - A Night at the Opera
