Beaverton Arts Commission- Community Grant Program – Deadline March 24!

The Beaverton Arts Commission (BAC) is accepting applications for its community grants program until Monday, March 24 at 5 p.m. The BAC Grant Program provides financial support for non-profit visual, written, and performing arts organizations who serve the Beaverton community. This program is funded by the Beaverton Arts & Culture Foundation.

Now in its second year, grants are open to individual artists, arts/cultural groups, and Beaverton schools. Social service agencies, religious organizations, and private businesses are also eligible if they partner with a not-for-profit arts or diverse cultural organization for a joint project. The full application can be found online at www.BeavertonArts.org. Applicants will be notified by the end of May. All funded activities must take place between July 1, 2014 and June 30, 2015.

BAC Accepting Scholarship Self-Nominations for BAC Fine/Performing Art Graduating Seniors

The Beaverton Arts Commission is now accepting applications for the Annual Art Student Scholarship Program for high school seniors. The deadline to apply is Monday, April 21.

To qualify, students must currently be in their senior year of high school. The following scholarships will be awarded:

- $1,000 for Outstanding Visual Art High School Senior—includes traditional media, design and moving image.
- $1,000 for Outstanding Performance Art High School Senior—includes music, dance, singing, and drama. Tech crew members can also apply.

More than one scholarship in each category may be given. Scholarships will be presented by Mayor Doyle at a Beaverton City Council meeting in June 2013. To view application and guidelines, please visit www.beavertonarts.org

The scholarships are funded in partnership by the Beaverton Arts & Culture Foundation and the Celebration of Creativity Committee of Southminster Presbyterian Church.

For questions about the guidelines or application, contact Elaine Worden at 503-526-2299 or eworden@BeavertonOregon.gov.

Tom Swearingen of Tualatin, Oregon, winner of the National Finals Rodeo 2013 Cowboy Poetry Week Contest, is a popular presenter at cowboy gatherings, horse camps, and rodeos. Tom's poetry is often based on his own experiences, many of which occur as he and his wife ride their horses on Oregon's mountain trails.

Larry Wilder entertains a wide variety of audiences with his banjo, guitar and vocals. He also delights with virtuoso yodeling that shows why he was named National Yodeling Champion. Larry has performed 2,000 shows on national and international stages, bringing his heart and passion for Americana music directly to his audiences through stellar musical performances intertwined with the compelling stories behind the artists and songs.
