Man Stabbed Checking on Female Fighting with Her Boyfriend

On Monday, November 2, 2015 at 6:45 a.m. Beaverton Police responded to the area of the Beaverton Transit Center on SW Lombard to a reported domestic disturbance. This disturbance was reported to be between a male and female in a field that borders the Beaverton Transit Center just to the North. The male suspect is identified as Angel Lopez 22 years of age. Lopez and the female are both local transients.

Once officers arrived it was determined that a second male, the victim had confronted Lopez. The two males then got into a physical fight in the field and Lopez stabbed the victim with a knife. The victim was transported to a local area hospital with life threatening injuries.

Lopez was arrested at the scene and is being charged with attempted murder, assault in the first degree and unauthorized use of a weapon and will be lodged at the Washington County Jail. The female was not injured and was not charged with any crime.

The victim’s name is not being released at this time pending notification of his family. The victim is believed to have been a Good Samaritan that was checking on the safety of the female and was not known to Lopez or the female.
