Southridge Presents Shakespeare's Tempest, with a Twist

Imaginative Steampunk Setting Adds to Allure of Shakespearean Classic

The Tempest, considered to be one of Shakespeare's greatest works, includes sorcery, romance, treachery, and redemption; add the sci-fi and fantasy of steampunk and it's a must-see show. Southridge High School Theatre department will be performing Shakespeare's Tempest opening November 12. Students, families and community members are invited to the Southridge High School Theater to experience a new take on Shakespeare's masterpiece.

Southridge High School is located at 9625 SW 125th Avenue in Beaverton. The Tempest runs November 12, 13, and 14 with a special $5 price on opening night and for the matinee at 1pm on Saturday, November 14. For evening performances, the box office opens at 6pm, and curtain is 7pm. For more information or to purchase tickets, see the Southridge Theatre website at www.skyhawktheatre.com or call 503-349-3822.

EVE 503-754-9866

EVENT DESCRIPTION
written by Bethany Schwartzkopt based on the classic novel by Frances Hodgson Burnett directed by Melissa Riley

The wealthy and handsome Captain Crewe leaves his beloved daughter, Sara, at a boarding school in London. The school's stern headmistress, Miss Minchin, resents Sara from the first day due to a perceived slight, but plays nice because of her wealthy status. When Minchin discovers that Sara's father has died of brain fever while in India, leaving Sara penniless, Minchin reveals her true self, taking all of Sara's finery and forcing her to live as the school's maid. Sara turns to her gift of story-telling, inventing a fantasy life called "the magic" that keeps her cheerful despite her difficulties. Her believe in the magic is strengthened when someone starts leaving secret gifts for her. Her benefactor is the school's mysterious new neighbor -- Captain Crewe's former business partner -- who has been searching the world for Sara.

ISing Choir's "A Midwinter Night's Dream"
