EARN YOUR HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA, NO MATTER YOUR AGE

BEAVERTON, Ore. – Learn about earning your high school diploma through the Adult High School Diploma program (AHSD) at Mt. Hood Community College. The informational session is Thursday, Jan. 18 at 6 p.m. at Beaverton City Library located at 12375 SW 5th St.

AHSD is designed for students ages 16 and up who would like to earn or complete their high school diploma while taking high school and/or college courses at Mt. Hood Community College. There is no maximum age limit for AHSD—anyone who has the goal of completing their high school education is welcome!

This program is free and open to the public; no registration is required. For more information, visit www.BeavertonLibrary.org or call 503-644-2197.

Beaverton City Library is one of fifteen member libraries in Washington County Cooperative Library Services (WCCLS), which works to provide responsive and efficient library service countywide through centralized catalog, courier and other services.

The city of Beaverton is home to more than 95,000 residents and is Oregon's sixth largest city.
