JOIN US FOR A PUBLIC SAFETY CENTER DESIGN OPEN HOUSE

BEAVERTON, Ore. – Provide design input on Beaverton’s new police and emergency management building at a public open house on Thursday, Feb. 1 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. The open house will be held in the community meeting room at the Bridge Meadows Beaverton complex located at 5995 SW Menlo Dr.

Participants will have the chance to speak with city staff and project team members about site and building design, as well as building operations and programming. Design drawings will be on display for public input. The open house is a drop-in style event open to all community members. Refreshments, interpretation and childcare provided.

The open house will also include information on the Allen Boulevard District Plan, an effort aimed at working with the neighborhood near the public safety center to better understand community needs. For more information about the Allen Boulevard District Plan and to take a brief survey, visit www.BeavertonOregon.gov/Allen.

About the Public Safety Center

In 2016, Beaverton voters approved a bond measure for a new earthquake resistant police and emergency management building. The public safety center will be built at the existing site of the Beaverton Activities Center, which is city-owned property near the corner of SW Hall Blvd and SW Allen Blvd. Demolition and early site work will begin this summer and project completion is expected in early 2020.
