BEAVERTON CITY LIBRARY HOSTS BLACK HISTORY RETROSPECTIVE

BEAVERTON, Ore. – You're invited to join us on a journey through the African-American experience on Monday, Feb. 5, 2018 from 7 to 8 p.m. as World Stage Theatre presents "Who I Am - Celebrating Me: A Black History Retrospective."

Under the direction of playwright Shalanda Sims, the production is a montage of African-American figures and movements, past and present. In its twelfth season, this masterful production employs song, dance, imagery and spoken word. The performance will be followed by a conversation with the actors and the playwright.

The mission of World Stage Theatre is to provide exploration, experience and exposure to underserved youth and adults interested in the performing arts while providing culturally relevant, live theater performances and theater arts education for the community.

This program is free and open to the public. For more information, visit www.BeavertonLibrary.org or call 503-644-2197.

Beaverton City Library is one of fifteen member libraries in Washington County Cooperative Library Services (WCCLS), which works to provide responsive and efficient library service countywide through centralized catalog, courier and other services.
