BEYOND THE PAGES OF THE SCRIPT: “THE 39 STEPS”

BEAVERTON, Ore. – Join us for a special 50-minute preview event for the upcoming production of “The 39 Steps,” featuring local “Hitchcock Geek” Joel Gunz. The event will be held on Wednesday, Feb. 28 at 7 p.m. at Beaverton City Library located at 12375 SW 5th St. Meet the cast, see a scene from the show, and delve into the world of Alfred Hitchcock—a filmmaker described as the “Master of Suspense.”

Joel Gunz began “geeking out” on Alfred Hitchcock at age 12. Eventually, he fell among filmmakers and scholars who did absolutely nothing to curb his obsession. Those experiences led to a website that scholars are calling “The best Hitchcock blog on the Internet.” Speaking appearances include two gigs at The 39 Steps on Broadway. Drop by his blog at www.alfredhitchcockgeek.com, and then join his discussion with more than 200,000 fans worldwide at facebook.com/HitchcockGeek.

This program is free and open to the public; no registration is required. For more information, visit www.BeavertonLibrary.org or call 503-644-2197.

Beaverton City Library is one of fifteen member libraries in Washington County Cooperative Library Services (WCCLS), which works to provide responsive and efficient library service countywide through centralized catalog, courier and other services.

The city of Beaverton is home to more than 95,000 residents and is Oregon’s sixth largest city. We are a friendly, active and responsive city well-known for our exceptional community services and amenities, helping Beaverton residents enjoy a high quality of life. Ranked in Money magazine’s Best Places to Live, Beaverton truly is “The Best of Oregon.”
