ENTREPRENEUR CLINICS OFFERED AT BEAVERTON CITY LIBRARY

BEAVERTON, Ore. – Need help growing your business? Whether you're starting or growing a business, there are local assistance organizations that can help you succeed. Maybe you're looking for financial help, market research, counseling on the viability of a business idea, or just advice on what steps to take.

Beaverton City Library offers free business consultations and connections with community lenders at Entrepreneur Clinic: Library to Business. This drop-in program occurs on the third Wednesday of every month (Mar. 21, Apr. 18, etc.) between 2 and 4 p.m. in the computer classroom on the second floor of the main library located at 12375 SW 5th St.

Meet community partners such as SCORE and Impact Beaverton, providers of free business consulting.

This program is free and open to the public; no registration is required. For more information, visit www.BeavertonLibrary.org or call 503-644-2197.

Beaverton City Library is one of fifteen member libraries in Washington County Cooperative Library Services (WCCLS), which works to provide responsive and efficient library service countywide through centralized catalog, courier and other services.

The city of Beaverton is home to more than 95,000 residents and is Oregon's sixth largest city. We are a friendly, active and responsive city well-known for our exceptional community services and amenities, helping Beaverton residents enjoy a high quality of life. Ranked in Money magazine's Best Places to Live, Beaverton truly is "The Best of Oregon."
