GAME HOUSE CAFÉ OPENS IN BEAVERTON

BEAVERTON, Ore. – Looking for a rainy day activity that’s fun for the whole family? Beaverton is excited to welcome Game House Café to our downtown community! Join us for a grand opening celebration on Friday, Apr. 6 from 4 to 6 p.m.

The public is invited to attend to enjoy any of the hundreds of board games, as well as complimentary samplings of food and drinks during the event. Game House Café is located at 4725 SW Lombard Ave Suite 106 in the LaScala building.

Robert and Jennifer Beatty decided to create Game House Café to bring a safe and casual space open to all. As parents of young children, they wanted to create an environment where people can escape the daily grind of screens and social media, and connect together over a game. The idea is simple: Game House is a place for good food, good friends, and good plain-old fun.

Game House Café received grants from the city’s Storefront and Tenant Improvement programs to make their dream of a game house a reality. Storefront and Tenant Improvement grants are provided in partnership between the city and the Beaverton Urban Redevelopment Agency (BURA).
