Beaverton Committee for Community Involvement Report, Frosty Comer

Sterling Pointe sign request was turned down the Planning Commission. The Commission is considering revising the sign code but the revision will likely be minimal. Planning expects to start the revision work in April due to lack of resources. Discussion ensued about reason for Planning Commission's rejection of Sterling Pointe's request; Sterling Pointe will present on this topic at April NAC meeting.

Tualatin Valley Fire and Rescue Report, Station 66 Staff

Noted that additional signage at Sterling Pointe will help citizens provide landmarks for 911 calls

Two of the station's personnel are currently working at the training academy teaching recruits

One new officer coming out of probation

Call volume decreasing recently (common between seasons)

Newberg and Newberg rural elected to join TVFNR

Safety message and information on kitchen fires

Question about small fire extinguishers; suggestion was to check them each time you change your smoke alarm

Question about concerns around homelessness; fire department does not do more than respond in emergency situations, but multiple departments in the City are working on this issue

Movie Night Matching Grant Discussion

August 17 at Hiteon Elementary

10am through 10pm reservation

Mike asked for volunteers for a Planning Committee:

- Frosty volunteered to get sponsors for water and popcorn
- Jen, Lisa and Heidi also volunteered for the committee
- Jen to work on survey of kids at Hiteon for movie

Additional Matching Grant Projects Discussion (Frosty Comer)

Frosty is connected to someone who is working with high school students to get a grant for $1400 to buy 2 3D printer kits. Frosty will follow up with him and we will look into the NAC submitting a grant proposal to submit to city for students to get these kits for the students to build the printers and sell them.

Mike mentioned that the city provides $23.56 per volunteer hour as a financial match, as well as providing funds to plant trees.

Roundtable

Signage for NAC Meeting from Neighborhood & Public Involvement Program; Mike will pick up from the City

Encourage your neighbors to come to meetings; some NACs have 30 people at meetings and we would love to see more people involved in South Beaverton

Brainstorm ideas for a vision statement as a NAC; including current ideas to improve the neighborhood, as well as a 2 year plan and 5 year plan

Concluded at 8:25 PM
