LEARN MONEY SMART BASICS AT BEAVERTON CITY LIBRARY

BEAVERTON, Ore. – Are you ready to get smarter about your money? Join Beaverton City Library located at 12375 SW 5th St for Money Smart Basics: Budgeting, Debt & Credit on Sunday, Apr. 22 from 2 to 3 p.m.

This workshop is designed to put you on the path of financial know-how. Walk away with a better understanding of money concepts, and be better prepared to start learning even more. Gain confidence and the knowledge you need to take control of your financial future. Topics covered include budgeting, banking, debt and credit.

The presentation is provided by the Portland Chapter of BetterInvesting, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, as part of Money Smart Week, which brings together financial institutions, nonprofits, libraries, universities and government agencies to offer free financial education classes across the country. For more information, visit www.moneysmartweek.org. This is a sales-free environment absent of financial products or service obligations.

This program is free and open to the public; no registration is required. For more information, visit www.BeavertonLibrary.org or call 503-644-2197.

Beaverton City Library is one of fifteen member libraries in Washington County Cooperative Library Services (WCCLS), which works to provide responsive and efficient library service countywide through centralized catalog, courier and other services.
