GAIN YOUR HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA – NO MATTER YOUR AGE

BEAVERTON, Ore. – Join Beaverton City Library (12375 SW 5th St) on Thursday, May 24 at 6 p.m. to learn about earning your high school diploma through the Adult High School Diploma (AHSD) program at Mt. Hood Community College.

AHSD is designed for students ages 16 and up who would like to earn or complete their high school diploma while taking high school and/or college courses at Mt. Hood Community College. There is no maximum age limit for AHSD—anyone who has the goal of completing their high school education is welcome.

Find out more about this unique program to help adults complete the requirements for an Oregon high school diploma. Any adult wishing to complete their diploma, regardless of how long they have been out of school, is encouraged to come and find out more.

This program is free and open to the public; no registration is required. For more information, visit www.BeavertonLibrary.org, or call 503-644-2197.

Beaverton City Library is one of fifteen member libraries in Washington County Cooperative Library Services (WCCLS), which works to provide responsive and efficient library service countywide through centralized catalog, courier and other services.
