EXPECT ROAD CLOSURES AND MINOR DELAYS DURING BEAVERTON HALF MARATHON RACE

BEAVERTON, Ore. – The Beaverton Half Marathon will take place on Sunday, Jun. 3 at 8 a.m. The race starts and finishes on Gemini Drive, near Portland Running Company and Scholls Ferry Road. The course takes runners along some of Beaverton's well-known streets, through neighborhoods, and on the Fanno Creek Trail.

Beaverton drivers and pedestrians should expect minor delays near the race route. To minimize impacts, roadways along the route will be temporarily closed to traffic and then reopened as runners make their way to the finish line.

Closures will begin at 6:30 a.m. and will be most restrictive from 8 to 11 a.m. as runners are on the course. Beaverton Police officers will be assisting motorists around the route and alternative transportation routes will be posted.

The following closure times are estimates:

- Stratus Street between Creekside Place and Nimbus Avenue, closed from 6:30 a.m. to 12 p.m.
