FERMENTATION FESTIVAL AT BEAVERTON CITY LIBRARY

BEAVERTON, Ore. – Get cultured at the library! Join Beaverton City Library (12375 SW 5th St) on Sunday, Sep. 23 from 1 to 4 p.m. for our first-ever Fermentation Festival, a celebration of flavorful and healthful fermented foods and beverages.

Vendors will be sampling and selling cultured specialties, including kimchi, kombucha, miso and probiotic hot sauce. Come by and taste beer and cider from 2 Towns Cider, Leikam Brewing and Ex Novo Brewing (soon to be our neighbors in downtown Beaverton).

Discover your inner fermentation master at our two demonstration workshops, where you will learn how to brew beer and make your own kimchi and sauerkraut. NW Ferments will be on-hand selling starter kits and other equipment you can use to get started with home fermentation.

This program is free and open to the public; all ages are welcome.

For additional information regarding Beaverton City Library, visit www.BeavertonLibrary.org or call 503-644-2197. Beaverton City Library is one of fifteen member libraries in Washington County Cooperative Library Services (WCCLS), which works to provide responsive and efficient library service countywide through centralized catalog, courier and other services.
