BEYOND THE PAGES OF THE SCRIPT: “SCHOOLHOUSE ROCK LIVE!”

BEAVERTON, Ore. – Join us for a special 50-minute preview event for the upcoming production of Schoolhouse Rock Live! The event will be held Wednesday, Sep. 26 at 7 p.m. at Beaverton City Library located at 12375 SW 5th St.

Children are born ready to be music makers. The window for music learning is open widest between ages 0-7, when brain development is vast and primary adult-child interaction is vital. Come learn about the world of early childhood music development and how you can support your child's inborn love of music through the lens of parent, music therapist, teacher and family music center director, Kayla Hughes, MT-BC.

This program is free and open to the public; no registration is required. For more information, visit www.BeavertonLibrary.org or call 503-644-2197.

Beaverton City Library is one of fifteen member libraries in Washington County Cooperative Library Services (WCCLS), which works to provide responsive and efficient library service countywide through centralized catalog, courier and other services.
