CHICKENS DON'T FLY: STORYTELLING WITH OBA WILLIAM KING AT BEAVERTON CITY LIBRARY

BEAVERTON, Ore. – Join us as we welcome nationally renowned storyteller Oba William King for an intimate hour weaving personal stories, folklore, poetry and percussion into a tapestry of storytelling magic. The event is Sunday, Nov. 18 from 3 to 4 p.m. at Beaverton City Library located at 12375 SW 5th St.

Don't miss this chance to see and hear a unique voice in storytelling!

Among many other honors, King has been featured at the Kennedy Center for the Arts and the National Storytelling Festival. His recent books include Firefly and Little Star, a storybook for young readers, and R.E.A.D. and Other Story Poems, designed for preteen and tween-aged youth.

This program is free and open to the public (ages 13 and up); no registration required. For more information, visit www.BeavertonLibrary.org or call 503-644-2197.

Beaverton City Library is one of fifteen member libraries in Washington County Cooperative Library Services (WCCLS), which works to provide responsive and efficient library service countywide through centralized catalog, courier and other services.
