BEAVERTON CITY LIBRARY HOSTS JOB FAIR

BEAVERTON, Ore. – Looking for a job? Come to Beaverton City Library (12375 SW 5th St) on Tuesday, Nov. 27 from 1 to 4 p.m. and meet with some of the Westside's top community employers. Employers will be on-site to speak with you about their various openings. Bring your resume, dress in business/business-casual style, and be prepared to interview.

Participating employers include Securitas (seeking security guards), SW ComForCare (seeking in-home caregivers), Bridges to Change (seeking recovery mentors and health managers), Wells Fargo (seeking telephone bankers), Millennium Building Services (seeking day porters and janitors), and Bethesda Lutheran (seeking group home employees).

Partnering with job fair participants is Job Connection, a free job search program that develops a personalized strategy based on individual strengths and goals.

This program is free and open to the public. Registration is preferred but not required; to register, call Joy Whitmore at 503-641-3762.

For more information, visit www.BeavertonLibrary.org or call 503-644-2197. For more information about Job Connection, visit www.goodwilljobconnection.org.

Beaverton City Library is one of fifteen member libraries in Washington County Cooperative Library Services (WCCLS), which works to provide responsive and efficient library service countywide through centralized catalog, courier and other services.
