PROPOSALS NOW BEING ACCEPTED FOR ARTS GRANTS AND EVENTS

BEAVERTON, Ore. – The City of Beaverton Arts Program is now seeking proposals for the Art Lives Here: Place and Neighborhood-Based Projects grant program and the annual Beaverton Ten Tiny Dances event. For more information and to apply for either of these opportunities, visit www.BeavertonOregon.gov/ArtSubmit.

The Art Lives Here grant program aims to support and nurture community-led place and neighborhood-based art projects that activate and enliven publicly-accessible places and enhance the quality of life in Beaverton's neighborhoods. Project duration may vary and could be a one-time placemaking event, performance, creative wayfinding or other artwork installation that is on display temporarily or permanently.

Beaverton Ten Tiny Dances is a free, public event that features a wide variety of dancers, and is designed to engage audiences with unique performances and settings. The City of Beaverton is seeking proposals from master-level choreographers and dancers to create and perform a dance as part of Beaverton Ten Tiny Dances 2020.

The deadline to apply for either opportunity is Thursday, March 19 by 5 p.m.
