Measure 34-298 Proposed Beaverton Charter of 2021

Adopts New Charter for Beaverton City Government

The virtual forum will be hosted online and available for viewing at www.BeavertonOregon.gov/votersforum and broadcast on cable Channel 23.

Questions for the proposed Beaverton charter of 2021 community sessions can be submitted early by email to neighbormail@BeavertonOregon.gov.

Questions directed to candidates at the Voters' Forum can be submitted online at www.BeavertonOregon.gov/votersforum. Candidate questions should be directed to all for a given position.

The Voters' Forum is hosted by the Beaverton Committee for Community Involvement (BCCI), a group charged to assist in developing, implementing and evaluating a community involvement program that ensures an opportunity for individuals to be involved in all phases of the city's land use planning and decision-making process. BCCI is composed of a representative from each of the city's 11 Neighborhood Association Committees (NACs), and eight at-large members appointed by the Beaverton City Council.
