

Starting Your Vegetable Garden

Free gardening class!

When: Tuesday, March 21, 2017 from 7-8:30 PM

Location: Library Meeting Room A

Description:

Often new vegetable gardeners, dreaming of lush, productive gardens, are frustrated with their lack of success. Don't let that be you! Tim Lanfri, OSU Extension Service Master Gardener will walk you through the process of starting your own vegetable garden. He will talk about site selection, soil preparation, planting times, water and fertilization needs as well as general garden maintenance. Focus will be on the spring and summer gardens.

No registration is required. The intended audience is adults.
