BOLD (Beaverton Organizing Leadership Development)

Apply to be apart of the 2015 BOLD Program!

Center for Intercultural Organizing (CIO) in partnership with the City of Beaverton will be providing a training program to 20-25 emerging leaders from immigrant and refugee communities and communities of color in Beaverton through a structured, leadership development program built on a popular education model. Popular education draws on the direct lived experiences and knowledge of everyone involved, where participants are both learners and teachers.

Training components will include understanding the City of Beaverton's government structure, the political landscape of Beaverton, Community Organizing, Identifying Community Issues and Community Organizing to Shift Public Policy.

Your leadership is important to making Beaverton a thriving, multi-cultural city inclusive to all. Please join us for this exciting program.

Please note: You MUST reside within Beaverton City limits to Apply
